

EDUCATORS TO

THE WAR

EAST COAST
REGIONAL CONFERENCE
Saturday March 5

9am-5pm (party to follow)
Hunter College H.S.
71 E 94th St. @ Park Ave.
New York City

- assess the state of the war, empire, and our role as educators in the movement to fight back
- build anti-war activity in our unions, schools, colleges, and universities
- explore pedagogy and intellectual and cultural materials to bring the war and the anti-war movement into the classroom, K-12-graduate school
- resist military recruitment in our schools, colleges, and universities
- resist any move to bring back the draft

Plenary Sessions • Workshops • Cultural Activities
• Lunch • Party Saturday Night

	REGISTER NOW Please register in advance and online at: www.educatorstostopthewar.org Online registration will close Thursday evening, 3/3/05 Registration at the door, Saturday, 3/5/05 at 8:30 am * $30.00 if employed full time/ $20.00 part-time www.educatorstostopthewar.org
-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------

A project of U.S. Labor Against the War (www.uslaboragainstawar.org) sponsored by Educators to Stop the War and organized by members* of the following organizations (list in formation): AAUP, AFT, CWA, NEA Peace and Justice Caucus, UAW, Educators for Social Responsibility

*Affiliations listed for identification purposes only